

Press Release #2
ProSleeve Golf

March, 2006

ProSleeve Golf, the manufacturer of the ProSleeve based in Littleton, CO has announced an agreement with ProActive Sports to become their exclusive distributor for the ProSleeve in the United States.

“We, at ProSleeve Golf, couldn’t be happier or more pleased to have ProActive Sports in our camp. They have a great reputation in the industry and a very strong and loyal customer base. All of which is a direct reflection of being in business for the past twenty years”, says Bob Lansford, VP of Sales for ProSleeve Golf.

ProActive Sports will be targeting golf speciality stores and green grass accounts throughout the country. ProActive Sports can be reached at 1-800-369-8579 or weborders@proactivesports.com.

The ProSleeve is a “triggered golf ball shag tube” designed to make practice fun and easy. The trigger allows the golfer to dispense one or multiple golf balls and then retrieve them with ease.
